

Where Change Begins – A Day to Imagine, Connect, and Act on Climate

Join us for a transformative day of learning, discussion, and bold action on the harsh reality of climate change.

Featuring a keynote presentation by climate fiction author, Lisa Brideau, catered lunch and a tour of UBC Botanical Garden, this event is intended to engage and empower a diversity of climate-concerned citizens and community leaders. The day's proceedings will be documented by a visual artist, and conclude with a collaborative, action-oriented session.

When: 8:45 am to 4:45 pm, May 22, 2025

Where: UBC Botanical Garden Reception Centre

Keynote Speaker:

Lisa Brideau Author of ADRIFT

Senior Sustainability Specialist,
City of Vancouver
